

COMMITMENT #2: OPEN ADMINISTRATION WEEK
Commitment Start and End Date: January 2019 – March 2019
Lead implementing agency/actor	Platform of Civil Society Associations - House of Citizenship, supported by the National Network for Open Administration
Commitment description
What is the public problem that the commitment will address?	There is little information made available to citizens, in an accessible and structured way, on Open Administration issues, in its various aspects
What is the commitment?	Promote the dissemination of the OGP principles and of initiatives carried out by Portugal and other countries within the scope of Open Administration, in order to promote knowledge and an informed debate on concrete examples regarding the implementation of the Open Administration agenda at a global level. This commitment will include a public event on the subject of Open Administration promoted by PASC, with the support of the National Network for Open Administration, along with a variety of other events to be defined during the planning phase.
How will the commitment contribute to solve the public problem?	The Open Administration Week will contribute to promote a culture of transparency and public participation in Public Administration and civil society, as well as to promote public confidence in public institutions. The organization of specific initiatives and the exchange of experiences and good practices in the field of Open Administration will imply the realization of partnerships between public entities and between them and civil society.
Why is this commitment relevant to OGP values?	The measure fits on the axes "Transparency" and "Public Participation".
